

CURTIS

Layford "Curt" Curtis, 71, of Cantonment, died Tuesday, March 13, 1990. Services, 10 a.m. Friday in Cokesbury United Methodist Church. Bayview Fisher-Pou Funeral Service directing.

BAYVIEW FISHER-POU LAYFORD "CURT" CURTIS

Layford "Curt" Curtis, 71, of Cantonment, died Tuesday evening, March 13, 1990 in a local hospital.

Mr. Curtis was a native of Buckatunna, Miss., and had resided in Pensacola for the past 17 years, coming here from Baltimore, Md. He was a member of Masonic Lodge 884 of Mobile, Ala. and a Sunday school teacher.

Survivors include his wife, Lyda Curtis of Cantonment; a daughter and son-in-law, Lynn and William Zuleger of Cantonment; a brother, Lester Curtis of Zachary, La.; two sisters, Flossie Smith of Moss Point, Miss., Myrtle Bumpers, of Birmingham, Ala.; a grandson, Todd Zuleger of Cantonment; and a granddaughter, Tiffany Zuleger of Cantonment.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m., Friday, March 16, 1990 at Cokesbury United Methodist Church with Rev. Joseph H. Bullington Jr., officiating.

Burial will be in Barrancas National Cemetery with Bayview/Fisher-Pou Chapel, 3351 Scenic Highway, directing.

Friends may call at Bayview Chapel from 6 to 8 p.m., Thursday.

Masonic services will be held at graveside with Escambia Lodge 15.